

Marine Purchaser (m/f/d)

Are you passionate about procurement?

Are you interested in ships and to be part of a truly global business?

Then, this opportunity with a leading ship manager located in Hamburg is made for you!

Shipping business is fast paced, energetic and fun. However, ships cannot run safely, environmentally friendly and to the clients expectations without supplies, delivered to all corners of the world, in time. This requires organizational talent and commercial sense to get the best value for money, which is not necessarily the cheapest, in a timely manner.

To strengthen the procurement team we are seeking a Marine Purchaser for one of the leading ship owners in Germany. You can expect an interesting and challenging role with a high level of independency and responsibility in a professional, friendly, multicultural and modern working environment. A lean organization ensures quick decision-making processes; a structured onboarding process is common and part of the overall HR policy.

To support the company's vision to conduct their work with a pool of professional, competent, dedicated and loyal staff, we are seeking great characters to handle the following :

Job responsibilities:

- Monitoring and processing of all requests made by the vessels, which are assigned to you, in the company's fleet management software
- Requesting and comparing different offers and placing orders accordingly with suppliers, after approval and in coordination with the superintendent in charge
- Organizing the safe and timely delivery of the purchased items to the vessels, worldwide. As the case may be, all the way from the suppliers, via the worldwide warehouses, to the final delivery on board via barge or truck
- Guaranteeing smooth handling of all processes, by maintaining pro-active and transparent communication with all stakeholders involved (e.g. captains and engineers on the vessels, superintendents, suppliers, forwarding- and shipping agents)
- Checking of incoming invoices prior to processing
- Assisting with the quality- and efficiency evaluation of the suppliers

What you bring along:

- Ideally you gained 3 or more years of similar work experience in your previous jobs
- Very good command of German and English (spoken and written)
- You are well structured and work pro-actively on upcoming tasks
- A high level of diligence, strong organizational skills and a team player attitude are needed for an effective performance
- You are an experienced user of Microsoft Office applications
- As the ideal candidate, you support a good team spirit and describe yourself as a self-driven, communicative and open-minded person, bringing new ideas and continuous improvement in processes, negotiations, etc.
- You possess great social and negotiation skills and you approach your work with professionalism and empathy
